4. (Unclassified - GLC) William Webb, in the office of Senator John G. Tower, called with regard to the article in HUMAN EVENTS to the effect that [] was in the employ of CIA. I advised Webb that it was our practice not to comment on press items speculating on alleged CIA matters and that as far as any reference to the Agency was concerned this was our position. However, I advised him that for the information of Senator Tower, [] was in no way in the employ of our organization.

[] Webb said he understood and appreciated the information.
